This book is dedicated to everyone I know who has an open mind.

Don't Judge a Book
by its Cover, if you look inside of it
there are things to be found.

Judge a book by its cover, and it won't be the only thing
bound.

There are so many faces,
and so many places.

A lot of moods,
and a lot of foods.

There are a Million

PRIZES,

shapes, makes and
sizes.

The background is a dark, textured surface with a network of thin, white, intersecting lines. Scattered throughout are numerous out-of-focus, colorful circles in shades of purple, blue, green, yellow, and orange, creating a bokeh effect.

So don't judge a book by its cover; you can't make up your mind so soon.

When you stop at the cover...

A young boy in a brown suit and hat is kneeling on the ground, holding a single red rose. He is looking up at an elderly woman who is standing and looking down at the flower. The woman is wearing a pink coat and a yellow hat. The background is a blurred outdoor setting.

You may miss out on a friend.
